Your Credit Union Credit Guide

Sydney Credit Union Ltd. (SCU) has an Australian Credit Licence authorising us to provide credit.

This Credit Guide provides you with an understanding of what to expect from us when we provide credit to you. The Guide includes information about some of our obligations under the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 (the National Credit Act).

You may also receive other documents when we provide services or credit to you.

Borrowing money from us

SCU provides loans to its members only.

Under the National Credit Act we must not enter into a credit contract, a credit card contract or increase a credit limit, if it is unsuitable for you.

A proposed credit contract, credit card contract or increase in credit limit will be unsuitable if, at the time it is entered into, it is likely that:

- you will be unable to comply with your financial obligations under the contract, or could only comply with substantial hardship, or
- the contract will not meet your requirements or objectives.

The law presumes there will be substantial hardship (unless the contrary is proved) where:

- you could only comply with your financial obligations under the contract by selling your principal place or residence; or
- you could not afford to repay the amount up to the credit limit on a credit card contract within the period determined by the regulator, ASIC (currently 3 years).

Our obligation to make a credit assessment

Before providing you with credit, we must make a preliminary assessment as to whether the contract or increase in limit will be unsuitable for you. In order to make this assessment we must:

- make reasonable inquiries about your requirements and objectives in relation to the credit contract, and
- make reasonable inquiries about your financial situation, and
- take reasonable steps to verify your financial situation.

Obtaining this information helps us get a reasonable understanding of your need for credit as well as your ability to meet all the repayments, fees, charges and transaction associated with the proposed credit contract. The extent of the inquiries we undertake will depend on the circumstances.

Your right to receive a copy of the credit assessment

You have the right to request a copy of our assessment of your suitability.

You may request a copy of the credit assessment up to 7 years after the day on which the credit contract is entered or the credit limit is increased.

Note: you are only entitled to receive a copy of your assessment if your loan is approved or credit limit increased.

You have other rights to access personal information we collect about you under the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). Please refer to our Privacy Disclosure Statement which is available on request by contacting us on 13 61 91 or on our website www.scu.net.au/site-assistance-privacy.html

What to do if you have a Complaint

Contact our Member Contact Centre on 13 61 91.

SCU has an internal dispute resolution process and is also a member of an independent external dispute resolution scheme. The dispute resolution system covers complaints by persons to whom we provide credit.

Details of our internal dispute resolution process can be provided on request at any of our Branches or by contacting us on 13 61 91.

If an issue has not been resolved to your satisfaction, you can lodge a complaint with the Australian Financial Complaints Authority, or AFCA. AFCA provides fair and independent financial services complaint resolution that is free to consumers.
